HEADLINES READ: New York Post... “GOD HATES US”

A freak Hurricane strikes in combination with two other weather systems that caused the “perfect storm” in New York City and New Jersey... They said it was Frankenstorm. Then one week later a freak Snowstorm hits the same area. The New York Post declared, “God Hates Us!” But if that were true, why would he send Christians to the rescue?

Good News York & New Jersey! Jesus cares and so do we...

HOW THE CHURCH TAKES CENTER STAGE IN A HUMANITARIAN CRISIS

It all begins when the church, comes into unity and starts networking to be Christ’ Ambassadors to hurting people in crisis. Thanks to a coalition of church pastors, ministry partners, and sponsors of Jerry Davis, Disaster Pastor Network, our efforts in New York & New Jersey through prayer, contacts and finances mobilizes an army of believers to impact disasters worldwide and bring good news to bad news places. As I’ve said for two decades, “Alone I can do a little, together we can touch the world.”

For example, Woodlands Church, Pastors Kerry and Chris Shook. immediately responded by having a food drive to ship a trailer of supplies and funded my personal travel expenses to assess and render immediate aid. They understand the scripture, "how shall they preach, except they be sent?" Rom 10:15.

Starlight who worked with us in Galveston and New Life who teamed with us in New Orleans are cooking 10,000 meals per day for distribution in NJ & NYC

This type of strategic partnership enables us to be among the first to assess a crisis, understand its unique DNA, and then mobilize the church world and other Christian compassion organizations to render aid and rescue souls. We have been able to do this through a vast and growing network of relationships with churches and compassion ministries built through approximately 100 deployments in 63 countries over 25 years. In a matter of a few hours we make vital contacts necessary to empower the church of Jesus Christ and the Gospel relevant in a crisis.

CRISIS TIME IS GOD TIME!

Prayer & compassion combined melts hearts and compels hurting people to call on God

Once you hit the Ground in any disaster... The first thing you do is pray... orient yourself... make your contacts... go to work! Every moment is dependent on a series of divine appointments. It becomes totally apparent that, "the steps of the righteous are ordered of the Lord." Psalm 37:23

I partnered with our broad coalition of strategic ministries across the nation such as Woodlands Church, Saddleback Church (Rick Warren), Somebody Cares (Doug Stringer) AIM (IV Hilliard), Embassy Church, Victory Life (Frank Griffith), New Life Outreach (Brent Turnipseed) and many others. My lifelong relationships with Lakewood & Joel Osteen help to bridge new relationships immediately.

Keep in mind... Every disaster has its own unique characteristics based upon the catastrophe, the location, the culture, the economics, the politics, the predominant religion of the area, and the internal logistics.

New York City and New Jersey are densely populated areas, with NYC being America's largest city and perhaps the most in need of salvation of all our major cities in America. God's word tells us in Hosea 5:15, "...in their affliction, they will seek me early"

My Role as Disaster Pastor

- 1. Rescue Lives, Win Souls, Coach Pastors & Churches how to turn a temporary disaster into an eternal victory for the Kingdom of God.
- 2. Assess and Oversee distribution of Aid and Spiritual Ministry
- 3. Coordinate with Churches and Relief Ministries to purchase or facilitate the purchase and collection of supplies including first aid, food, water, hygiene products, cleaning supplies, etc
- 4. Pastoral Support: An important need is to temporarily financially support local pastors who lose their churches, homes, and congregations. Many churches cannot conduct services, therefore cannot receive their normal tithes and offerings.
- 5. Rebuild and Restore Churches and Ministries so they can help rebuild their communities, bringing God the credit and empowering their ongoing efforts, as well as firmly establishing their relationship equity with their communities.

*FEMA, Red Cross, and other secular organizations are usually capable of bringing humanitarian aid. They are NOT capable of delivering it with true compassion. That takes Christians. The secular world is also not capable of delivering the Gospel. But God never asked them to. That is the responsibility of the CHURCH at large.

Churches like Hope Cathedral, Pastor Trevon Gross, in New Jersey instantly become relief centers

6. Faith Without Works is Dead... But Works Without Faith is Dead:

One hundred years from now EVERYONE we help will be dead. All of the buildings we restore will be gone. The Church of Jesus Christ MUST leverage our desire to be humanitarians with our commission to be soul savers. It's very simple. The great command from Jesus to "Love your neighbor as yourself" must go hand in hand with the great commission from Christ to "Go make disciples." It takes both. Just as a dove needs two wings... So the dove of the Holy Spirit needs both wings of the great command and the great commission to fulfill the mission of the church. As the little poem says, "Only one life will soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last.

Here is how you can help us, help them.
